Residents and customers are urged to help reduce the risk of power outages by controlling Valentine’s Day balloons.

- Do not let balloons drift away outdoors
- Weight all helium-filled foil balloons
- Never try to retrieve balloons from power lines
- Never tie metallic string or streamers to balloons
- Do not bundle balloons together